Jose "David" Diaz was born on October 24, 1973 to Joe and Consuelo Diaz in Las Cruces, New Mexico. As David grew up, he became a brilliant multi-instrumentalist, skilled singer, compassionate teacher, gifted composer and musical mentor.

Music coursed through David's veins like oxygen. Music, sweet music, possessed David's personality like a man touched by God. To wit: a virtuoso, a saint, a comedian, a Holy Fool in the name of his supreme belief -- music. He was a buddy, a mentor, and with a saxophone or microphone in his hands, David was a mellifluous, transcendent (if not mischievous) cherub -- quick to jest, quicker to love.

David was a former member of Nosotros, current member of Felonious Groove Foundation and Fantastic Planet, and a music instructor at Dimensions School of Dance and Music in Albuquerque, NM when he passed on April 9, 2009.

In honor of David, his family established The David Diaz Music from the Heart Endowment managed by the Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico. The David Diaz Music from the Heart Endowment will provide financial assistance to music programs and scholarships for young musicians in New Mexico.
